1. With reference to your Official Memorandum of the 20th instant, I have the honor to state that of Rupees 14,688, being the estimate of the Office contingencies for 1861-62, the Jail charges Rupees 12,372 have been excluded from the Budget as having been separately estimated by the Inspector General of Jails, and of the remaining Rupees 2,316, sanction has been granted for only a sum of Rupees 1,610 which, as shown in the margin,* falls short of even the fixed contingent charges of the Court amounting to Rupees 1,776, and the occasional contingent charges estimated at Rupees 540 are entirely left unprovided for.

2. It will therefore be seen that there are no surplus funds allotted for contingencies which can be made available to meet the monthly rent of the Principal Sudder Ameen's present Court house.
