Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 16th July 1861.

No. 142. Read the following letter from C. H. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India; to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, the 13th June 1861, No. 7,595.

Financial Department.

With reference to the Tabular Statement sent under your endorsement, No. 1,603A, dated the 5th December 1860, applying for a temporary increase of 120 Rupees per mensem, to the office of the Persian and Hindustani Translator to Government, I am desired to request that you will be good enough to state whether the charge is included in the Budget for 1861-62, and if not, whether it can be met by reductions of other items of expenditure under the head of service to which the application appertains.

No. 143. ORDER THEREON, 16th July 1861, No. 919.

The Persian and Hindustani Translator will report whether the charge for the extra Translator on Rupees 100 a month sanctioned on the 5th December last, Order No. 1,603, has been provided for in his Budget Estimate—and if not, he will, in communication with the Accountant General, suggest in what manner it can be met.

2. The pay of the extra Writer on Rupees 20, was, it is observed, sanctioned for six months from the 8th September 1860, and will not consequently be drawn from the Budget for 1861-62.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
