Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 27th June 1862.

No. 218. Read the following letter from GEORGE ELLIS, Esq., Civil Judge of Cuddalore ; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 19th June 1862, No. 90.

As required by the Order* of Government, dated 10th June 1862, (paragraph 4,) No. 898. I have the honor to report that suitable accommodation for the new Small Cause Court at this Station will be available ; a house for which the landlord demands a rent of Rupees 35 per mensem will be vacated about the 15th proximo, (most probably before that date) and I beg to recommend that it may be secured on account of Government. Should however this house be not available on the above date, there is a smaller one vacant, the rent of which is 25 Rupees per mensem, which may be rented temporarily, but it is not so conveniently situated as the other and the accommodation by no means so good.

In regard to buildings at the other Stations fixed on by Government, I propose to address you at an early date and on receipt of further information. In the mean time I beg to append an estimate of the furniture and Stationery required for the new Court and to add that the former can either be made up here or procured from Pondicherry.

No. 219. ORDER THEREON, 27th June 1862, No. 1,008.

The Civil Judge is authorized to rent the first house, he refers to, if available—and, if not, to secure the second one for the new Small Cause Court.
