27th June 1862.

No. 231. To the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Fort Saint George, 27th June 1862, No. 1,014.

In a Return of the existing temporary Judicial establishments, furnished by the Civil Paymaster, two Gomastahs on Rupees 10 each, employed to arrange the records of the late Sudder Ameen's Court at Sircy were included. This Government have, however, directed that this extra establishment should be struck out of the Madras list, as North Canara has been transferred to the Bombay Presidency.

2. I am directed to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that these Gomastahs were entertained in June 1861, and that their employment was sanctioned for only six months. Copies of the Proceedings of Government relating to them are forwarded for reference, if required.
