

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Judicial DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No. 1096	Press MS.
96-98
Dated 10.7.1862	-19

4/5

Not to be folded or roughly handled

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 10th July 1862.

Read the following papers:—

No. 96. From O. R. CROCKETT, Esq., Accountant Commercial Bank of India, Hong Kong; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 9th July 1862.

I have the honor to inform you, that I arrived yesterday at Madras from Hong Kong with a Warrant for the apprehension of one Daniel Salah Levi, for having entered into a conspiracy with one Ezekial Moses Moses, by which he swindled the Commercial Bank at Hong Kong out of a large sum of money. I was sworn in as a Special Constable before leaving Hong Kong, and I was also entrusted with a letter from the Governor to the address of the British Consul in Egypt which I believe to contain a requisition for assistance in this matter; but as on arriving at Galle, I received information that Levi was in Madras, I came here accordingly, and now forward the Governor's letter above specified, with a request that you will open it and regard it as a requisition addressed to this Government. I am able to identify Levi, and have laid an information before the Commissioner of Police to whom I have delivered the Warrant.

No. 97. From Major W. J. WILSON, Commissioner of Police; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 9th July 1862, No. 75.

I have the honor to enclose an information laid before me this day by Mr. Crockett, the Accountant of the Commercial Bank of India, Hong Kong, who arrived here yesterday with a Warrant for the apprehension of one D. S. Levi for conspiracy and swindling to a large extent.

Section XXII. Although this offence is not one of those specified in Section XXI, Act VII of 1854, I submit that it is sufficiently serious to be considered as an heinous offence for the purposes of that Act, and if this view of the matter should be taken by Government, I request that I may be empowered to endorse the Warrant to one of my own Officers for execution, and to deliver over the man Levi to Mr. Crockett, under the provisions of Section XV of the Act in question.

No. 98. ORDER THEREON, 10th July 1862, No. 1,096.

The first of the letters above recorded contains an application to the Governor in Council for the apprehension and delivery of one Daniel Salah Levi, a British subject, who is charged with having conspired with one Ezekiel Moses Moses and defrauded the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong of a large sum of money,* and who it is stated, is now in Madras.

* Amounting to about Rupees 50,000.

2. At the request of Mr. Crockett the Accountant of the Commercial Bank a letter which he states was given to him by the Governor of Hongkong, addressed to the British Consul in Egypt, has been opened and is found to contain a requisition for the aid of that functionary in the matter.

3. The Commissioner of Police has submitted an information laid before him by Mr. Crockett, and the Warrant for the apprehension of the said Daniel Salah Levi, issued by the Acting Chief Magistrate at Hongkong and requests authority to endorse the Warrant to one of his own Officers for execution, and to deliver the accused to Mr. Crockett under Section 15, Act VII of 1854. Mr. Crockett, it appears from the Warrant, has been sworn in as a Special Constable for the occasion.

4. The Governor in Council is of opinion that the offence charged against the accused is of sufficiently serious a character to bring it under the provisions of Section 22 of the Act above quoted, and he accordingly authorizes the Commissioner of Police to cause the Warrant to be executed to deliver the said Daniel Salah Levi to Mr. Crockett the Special Constable named in the Warrant.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Acting Chief Secretary.

Exd. F, Cartledge.

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

And the following Miss:

From W. A. Rockwell Esq. }
a loan of the German text } the end of July 1869
Book of Studies at Longfellow }

From the Hon^{ble} Sec^y of State

Ch. Turner - 4095 - 10th July 1862

The first of the letters above recorded contains an application to the Governor in Council for the apprehension and delivery of one Daniel Mead Vici a British Subject, who is charged with having conspired with one Gabriel Messias and defrauded the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong of a large sum of money, and who it is stated, is now in Madras.

2. The document which
Mr. Crockett collected which he states was given to him by the Governor of Hong Kong, addressed to

* according to Robert Raper

to the British Consul in Egypt,
has been opened and is found
to contain a requisition for the aid of that functionary in the matter.

3. The Commissioner of Police
has submitted an information
laid before him by Mr Crockett
and theARRANT for the apprehension of the said Daniel Salah Xeri issued by the acting Chief Magistrate at Hongkong and requests authority to endorse the warrant to one of his own officers for execution and to deliver the accused to Mr Crockett under
sec. 15, Act VII of 1854. Mr Crockett, it appears from the warrant, has been sworn in
as a Special Constable for the occasion.

4. The Governor in Council
is of opinion that the offence
charged against the accused is of sufficiently serious character to bring it under the provisions of sec. 22 of the Act above quoted, and he accordingly authorizes the Commissioner of Police to cause the WARRANT to be executed to deliver the said

(Daniel Salah Xeri) to Mr Crockett the Special Constable named in the warrant.

The Commissioner of Police

with the AARRANT & Paper 10/7 in his letter of information

Frank Smith
Surinder 1861. Department.

No. 1095

PROCEEDINGS OF GOVERNMENT.

Dated 10th July 1862

Authorizing the Commissioner of Police to cause the execution
of the warrant held by Mr Cockett, against the Commercial Bank of England, for the execution of 2. 5. 1861
who defrauded the said Bank
of a large sum of money, and
to deliver the same to Mr Cockett.

20/10/82