Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 11th July 1862.

No. 105. Read the following letter from R. B. SWINTON, Esq. Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Tanjore; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Combaconum, 7th July 1862, No. 3.

I have the honor to receive the Order of Government, dated the 2nd July 1862, No. 1,038, in paragraph 8 of which Tanjore is mentioned as the Head Quarter station; paragraph 9 of the previous Order of the 10th June 1862, named Combaconum as such and as the latter Order does not specifically alter the first but seems intended to remind me of it, I am not quite sure that Tanjore may not have been put for Combaconum by an oversight.

2. I will report without delay upon a place suitable for the Court at Tanjore, and in case of the intention of Government being that Tanjore should be the chief station will make as early a move there as I can, but beg that the Court may be opened here (at Combaconum) on the 15th for which every preparation is being made.

No. 106. ORDER THEREON, 11th July 1862, No. 1,101.

The Governor in Council observes that in the arrangement sanctioned under date the 10th ultimo, Combaconum and not Tanjore, was fixed upon as the Head Quarters of the Court.

2. The Governor in Council doubts the expediency of this arrangement. The late Civil and Sessions Judge, Mr. Beauchamp, was strongly in favor of placing the Head Quarters of the Small Cause Court at Tanjore, and of transferring the Civil and Session Court to that station as soon as possible. The Governor in Council requests that the Sudder Court will consider and report on this arrangement at an early date, previously ascertaining from the Collector whether any buildings are available as Court Houses.

3. In the meantime the Court of Small Causes can be opened at Combaconum on the 15th instant.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Acting Chief Secretary.
