Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 15th July 1862.

No. 163. Read the following letter from GEORGE ELLIS, Esq., Civil Judge of Cuddalore; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 9th July 1862, No. 98.

In continuation of my letter of the 19th June last, I have the honor to state for the information of Government that the Collector of the District reports that at Chellumbrum a Native house will be available for the Small Cause Court at a monthly rent of Rupees 7, but that at Veloooorum no accommodation whatever can be provided.

I would very respectfully suggest that if for the stations fixed on by Government those of Virdachellum and Tindevanum were substituted there would be no difficulty in obtaining suitable accommodation, while at the same time no greater inconvenience would be felt by parties resorting to these stations for the prosecution of their suits. At the Tindevanum station suits would be filed by parties from the towns and villages in the vicinity of Trinamalay, Veloooorum and Gingee; while at Virdachellum they would come from near and about Chellumbrum, Cullacurchy and Elavanapoor. At Virdachellum there are buildings in which the old Zillah Court at that station was formerly held and they could be repaired at a trifling expense. At Tindevanum the Collector reports "that accommodation is more readily to be had" than at Veloooorum and Chellumbrum.

No. 164. ORDER THEREON, 15th July 1862, No. 1,142.

Ordered accordingly that the following be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette:—

NOTIFICATION.

It is hereby notified that in supersession of the arrangement ordered in the Notification dated the 10th ultimo, Virdachellum and Tindevanum (and not Vellapuram and Chellambram) will be the outstations at which the Court of Small Causes for the Zillah of Cuddalore will be held from time to time.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Acting Chief Secretary.
