Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 14th August 1862.

No. 144. Read the following letter from R. R. COTTON, Esq., Civil Judge of Madura; to C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the Sudder Court, Madras, dated 17th July 1862, No. 129.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of the Judges, the extra work thrown upon my Court Establishment, by the abolition of the Sub-Court, and the transfer of its records since 1843 to my Court. I have been led to understand, that at Trichinopoly and Chingleput, where the Principal Sudder Ameens' Courts were abolished, a Writer and Gomastah were allowed to take charge of the said records, and to do the extra work, consequent on the transfer of the Sub-Court jurisdiction to the Civil and Sessions Court. I would also beg to bring to notice, the extra (in fact double*) work imposed on the Civil Court Nazir (pay 45 Rupees) and that owing to the peculiar nature of the suits, and the process issued in execution of decrees, I consider it not only just but most politic, that the Civil Court Nazir's salary should be raised at least to 60 Rupees (the pay of the Nazir in the old Zillah Court) and that he should be also allowed a Goomastah on 15 Rupees.

2. Should the Judges still continue of opinion, that a Sub-Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen's Court is not required at Madura, and that there are no grounds for interfering with the orders passed abolishing the Sub-Court, I request that the above application for assistance to enable me to conduct the extra duties imposed on the Civil and Sessions Court, may be speedily granted.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) C. F. CHAMIER,
Registrar.

The Judges recommend that a Writer on Rupees 31½ and a Gomastah on Rupees 21 per mensem, be retained from the Establishment of the late Subordinate Court, to strengthen and render efficient the Establishment of the Civil Judge. The Judges do not consider that it would be expedient to increase the salary of the Nazir of the Madura Court in the absence of any general measure affecting the Nazirs of all the Civil Courts.

By Order.
