Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 18th August 1862.

No. 185. Read the following letter from the Honorable E. DRUMMOND, Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department; to the Officiating Civil Pay Master, Madras, dated Fort William, Council Chamber, the 24th July 1862, No. 5,021.

Financial Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letters, No. 203, of the 25th April last, and No. 277, of the 13th ultimo, enquiring whether District Judges in the Madras Presidency, who leave their stations during the adjournment of their Courts, are entitled to privilege leave in addition, and soliciting instructions for calculating preparatory leave in the case of those Judges who, while absent during the adjournment, take leave on Medical Certificate or on private affairs.

2. In reply, I am desired to inform you that Judges who take leave during the adjournment of their Courts are not entitled to privilege leave in addition, and that if, while absent during the recess, they take leave on Medical Certificate or on private affairs, the period of such absence must form part of the leave they may obtain. Absence during the recess is thus put on the same footing with privilege leave.

No. 5,022.

Ordered, that a copy of the foregoing letter be forwarded to the Government of Madras, with reference to the Proceedings of that Government, dated the 4th March 1862, No. 365.
