Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th August 1862.

No. 275. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel W. J. WILSON, Commissioner of Police; to the Honorable T. PYCROFT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 18th August 1862, No. 100.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Order of Government noted in the margin, in which reference is made to Section 72 of the Police Act, No. XIII of 1856, by which any person not duly licensed who carries or conveys a greater quantity of Gunpowder than one pound from one place to another is liable to a certain penalty.

2. Shortly after the passing of the Arms' Act, Colonel Boulderson requested information as to how far certain Sections of the Police Act were to be considered, affected by the new Law, upon which Government observed that Sections 70 and 71 being Special and Local Regulations enacted on Municipal grounds were not set aside by the provisions of the Arms' Act, but that Section 72 might be regarded as merged in Sections 22 and 23 of that Act.

3. The meaning of these Sections was formerly entered into by Government in the Order noted in the margin, and in the concluding part of the paragraph it is laid down that the prohibition is not to extend to reasonable quantities of Arms and Ammunition transported for private use in any District not ordered or liable to be disarmed under Section 32 of the same Act.

4. It has not therefore been the practice in this Department to require parties to take out a License for any quantity of Gunpowder under ten pounds, and I have, therefore, brought the circumstance to notice with reference to the Order under reply.

No. 276. ORDER THEREON, 28th August 1862, No. 1,398.

Under the circumstances represented in the above letter, the present practice in the Department as described in the concluding paragraph—whereby licenses are not required to be taken out at Madras for a smaller quantity of gunpowder than ten pounds—need not be departed from.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
