Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th August 1862.

No. 277. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the Sudder Court; to the Honorable T. PYCROFT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 8th August 1862, No. 97.

1. Adverting to paragraph 3 of the Order of Government, dated the 4th ultimo, I am directed by the Judges to state that they have referred to Section VIII, Act XLII of 1860, and find no allusion therein to any sub-division of the territorial jurisdiction of the Courts of Small Causes. The Section merely provides for the time of holding sittings at the several places being fixed and duly proclaimed.

2. The Judges think that in the absence of legislative sanction, plaintiffs could not be compelled to file their plaints at any particular place.

No. 278. ORDER THEREON, 28th August 1862, No. 1,399.

It does not seem to the Government to be necessary that Plaintiffs should be compelled to file their plaints at any particular stations of the Small Cause Courts nor that legislative action should be resorted to for that purpose. The several places where each Court will be held, will be known, and the times when the Court will sit there, will be proclaimed. It may be left to suitors to file their plaints where they may prefer. They will naturally go to the place nearest to them, at which plaints are receivable.

Chief Secretary.
