The Civil Judge of Negapatam reported in April 1862, that there were 327 suits on the file of the District Moonsiff, in excess of the number reported in July 1861, while, on the file of the District Moonsiff's Court of Negapatam, for the relief of which the temporary Court was opened, the excess was 428 suits. The Judge has, therefore, applied for sanction to the charge till the 30th April 1863—and the Sudder Court have recommended the further retention of the Court as being absolutely necessary. 3. The Government have accordingly authorized the continuance of the Nagore Moonsiff's Court for the period specified, and requested the Civil Paymaster to pass the charge, as hitherto, in anticipation of the sanction of the Government of India, which is solicited. The expense is included in the Budget of 1862-63, at the rates for salary and establishment shown in this Statement, and also at the revised rates sanctioned by the Financial Resolution of the 15th April last, No. 2,905. The higher allowances will be disbursed on the new scale being brought into operation. 4. The new Small Cause Courts will be opened on the 15th instant, and at present it is not possible to say more than that it is expected that they will considerably reduce the files of the District Moonsiffs, and lead to a reduction in the number of these Courts.

Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George.

Sanctioned, and the attention of the Secretary to the Home Dept. is drawn to the Resolution of the Department under the sanction of the Government of India, 16th March 1861, No. 3,395, Financial Department. The District Moonsiff's Court, Nagore, was sanctioned temporarily by the Government of India, 16th March 1861, No. 3,395, Financial Department. The Civil Judge of Negapatam reported in April 1862, that there were 327 suits on the file of the District Moonsiff, in excess of the number reported in July 1861, while, on the file of the District Moonsiff's Court of Negapatam, for the relief of which the temporary Court was opened, the excess was 428 suits.
