Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd September 1862.

No. 218. Read the following letter from the Honorable EDMUND DRUMMOND, Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department ; to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 8th September 1862, No. 315 G.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Telegram representing that in the Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 365, dated the 4th March 1862, District Judges in that Presidency were authorized unconditionally to leave their Stations during the adjournment of their Courts, and enquiring whether the order issued from this Department on the 24th July last, declaring that leave during the adjournment cannot be taken in addition to privilege leave, is to have retrospective effect.

2. In reply I am desired to inform you that although the Government of Madras acted erroneously in passing their Orders of the 4th March last, His Excellency in Council is of opinion that the Judges who availed of the permission accorded in it to absent themselves during the last adjournment, should not have their claims to privilege leave prejudiced thereby; and is therefore pleased to decide that the Orders of this Government, dated the 24th July 1862, shall not have retrospective effect.

Ordered that a copy of the foregoing be forwarded to the Civil Paymaster, Madras, in continuation of the letter from this Department, No. 5,021, dated the 24th July 1862.

No. 219. ORDER THEREON, 22nd September 1862, No. 1,561.

Ordered to be recorded. It is however observed that in authorizing the closing of the Zillah Courts, both on the Civil and Criminal sides, during the adjournment, the Government acted under the authority conveyed by Section III, Regulation III of 1816.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
