I have had the honor of receiving "for report" the Government Office Petition* No. 1,850, (1862,) presented by Mr. Mayne, C

Shmi Narasaya Mahadevi, third wife of the late Zamindar of Saloor in this Agency.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 27th September 1862.

9. Can anything be more unsatisfactory than the present system? Petitioner, on the alleged settlement coming, as she avers, into effect, applies to the Governor's Agent, who replies "she shall not be listened to, but I do not object to giving her as much as 800 a year." She rejects this compromise and six years afterwards, presses her claim before another Agent to the Governor. This Officer directs the defendant, first of all to pay her 1,800 Rupees, then 1,200, and finally 1,100 per annum. "If so" he adds, "I will take precaution that no further claims against the Ramachandrapuram Pergunnah be ever made by these people," a guarantee which Government will do well to disavow, now it has come to their notice, or very serious pecuniary results may follow, since the widow has applied for assistance to Counsel learned in the law.

10. Any thing like friendly arbitration, where both parties agree in writing to abide by the Agent's decision with or without an appeal to Government in important cases, I would not for a moment be thought to oppose, nor would it perhaps be objectionable if some little pressure were brought to bear in cases where a rapid adjudication of the dispute is called for, for the peace of the country. These latter, however, very seldom arise, and in all other cases I would press for a standing rule, that friendly advice, counsel and arbitration aside, the Agent to the Governor be instructed to afford but one answer to the vakeels of these litigants:—"The Courts are open; let them implead." The constant intrigues, the delays, complications and above all the illegal results of the present system are deplorable evils, and the necessity of an early remedy is very earnestly recommended to the attention of Government.

The Agent is directed to inform the Petitioner that if she be dissatisfied with her present allowance, and think proper to press her assumed claims under the Puttah, she must do so in the regular way by suing the Zemindar in the Agent's Court.

2. The guarantee given to the Zemindar by Mr. Fane regarding the Ramachendrapuram Pergunnah, was altogether irregular and unauthorized, and the Government do not in any way recognize it.

3. The Government approve the view taken by the Acting Agent in paras. 8 to 10, of his letter relative to the Towjee system, and direct that the course indicated in para. 10 be followed for the future in both the Vizagapatam and Ganjam Agencies.
