Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
18th October 1862.

No. 160. Read the following letter from A. W. SULLIVAN, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Nundial; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 3rd October 1862, No. 10.

With reference to the Order of Government of the 15th September 1862, No. 1,511, Judicial Department, I have the honor to request that I may be informed:

"Whether a Judicial Officer to whom cumulative privilege leave may now be due, can avail himself of it, subject to the exigencies of the service, at any future period, or whether his right thereto will cease with the next adjournment?"

2. I would observe with reference to para. 12 of the letter*
• No. 3, dated 30th August 1862. of the Registrar of the High Court, on which the Order of Government is based, that it is quite possible that an Officer may have been allowing his privilege leave to accumulate for some special object, but that it does not follow that that object falls within the next adjournment.

No. 161. ORDER THEREON, 18th October 1862, No. 1,715.

A Judicial Officer entitled to privilege leave may, subject to the exigencies of the service, avail himself of it at any time—if he does not quit his station on the adjournment of his Court. He will not forfeit his title to leave until he has quitted his station during adjournment, whether the next or any subsequent adjournment. His right does not cease with the next adjournment in 1863.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
