Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 4th November 1862.

No. 29. Read the following letter from A. HATHAWAY, Esq., Magistrate of Bellary; to the Honorable T. PYCROFT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Bellary, 18th October 1862, No. 48.

1. With reference to para. 2 of the Proceedings of the Madras Government (Judicial Department), of the 13th instant, No. 1,682, I have the honor to request instructions, whether during my absence from the station on Jamabundi, or other official duty, I may (supposing that there be no European Assistant at the station), authorized the Deputy Magistrate, Mr. Blake, to superintend any execution of prisoners that may take place.

2. The Head Assistant Collector (whose permanent official residence is nearly 40 miles distant from Bellary,) is, at present, acting elsewhere; and no substitute has hitherto been appointed. Moreover, as regards the present Assistant Collector, it may be advisable that during a portion of the settlement, he accompany the Collector, in order to become acquainted with the work then carried on.

3. I may also add, that during the past two years, there has been an Assistant Collector in this District for only ten months.

No. 30. ORDER THEREON, 4th November 1862, No. 1,812.

The Magistrate of Bellary is authorized to delegate to the Deputy Magistrate, Mr. Blake, the duty of superintending capital executions, whenever there may be no European Magistrate present at the station.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
