Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th November 1862.

No. 45. Read the following letter from H. D. COOK, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Calicut; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Calicut, 17th October 1862, No. 647.

1. With reference to the accompanying copy of a letter from the Civil Surgeon of Calicut, I have the honor to suggest that sanction should be given for the entertainment of a Peon by the Civil Surgeon of the Zillah.

2. Hitherto one has always been deputed to the Civil Surgeon from the Subordinate Judge's Court, and lately from that of the Principal Sudder Amin; but as the Courts' Establishment of Peons has been reduced under Government Order, dated 6th August 1861, No. 408, Financial Department, there is no Peon to detach the Messengers allowed being barely sufficient for the current duties of the Court, and the Police Peons (9 for both Courts) being required for guard duty over the Treasury, Record-room, and keeping order.

3. The Police have lately taken up the Jail duty, so I have no means whatever of affording a Peon to the Civil Surgeon for the duties indicated.

From S. JARDINE WYNDOWE, Esq., M.D., Civil Surgeon, Malabar; to H. D. COOK, Esq., Civil Judge, Calicut, dated 16th October 1862, No. 118.

I have the honor to bring to your notice the great inconvenience entailed upon me by the withdrawal of the Peon always hitherto allowed the Civil Surgeon at this station.

The distance of the two Cutcheries, the reports which have to be daily furnished, messages to be sent, books and papers constantly required from my Hospitals and various other duties found ample employment for a single Peon, and if he be not replaced, I shall (as no Hospital servants are available), be forced to employ my private servants upon this work which is purely connected with my official duties.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) H. D. COOK,
Civil and Session Judge.
