Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 10th November 1862.

No. 74. Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, 25th September 1862.

Read letter dated the 18th ultimo, from the Civil Judge of Nundial, requesting to be informed whether authenticated copies of sentences and records in Criminal cases can be given on unstamped paper or not.

1. Copies of the depositions which a Magistrate is required by Section 230 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to furnish to an accused person whom he has determined to commit for trial before the Court of Session, may be made on unstamped paper, and must be authenticated by the Magistrate.

2. Copies of final sentences or orders furnished under Section 440 by any Criminal Court may likewise be on unstamped paper and must be authenticated by the presiding Judge or Magistrate.

3. No authenticated copy of the record of a trial can be furnished by a Criminal Court, in reference to Section XXX, Act X of 1862, except upon stamped paper of the value prescribed by Article 6, Schedule B; but unauthenticated copies for private use may be allowed to parties on unstamped paper.

4. In all the above cases, the copies are to be made at the expense of the parties applying for them, except in the instance of copies of final sentences or orders, which, if applied for by a prisoner desirous of appealing, or for any special reason, may be granted free of expense.
