Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 27th November 1862.

No. 191. Read the following letter from G. A. BALLARD, Esq., Magistrate of Malabar; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated Calicut, 5th November 1862, No. 92.

From the wording of the Notification dated September 11th 1862, proclaiming "that from " and after the 1st October next the southern and south-eastern portions of Wynad, comprising

SOUTH WYNAD.
Putbady.
Ganapathivattom.
Mupurnad.
Tondornad.
Kurumbala.

Edanaradur.
Vaitiri.
SOUTH E. WYNAD.
Cherangod.
Nambolikod.
Mun-nad.

" the tracts noted in the margin, now subject " to the Civil Court of Tellicherry, will be " transferred to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court " at Calicut," it does not distinctly appear that the Criminal jurisdiction in those portions of Wynad has been transferred in like manner, although I presume that this change also was intended. It certainly is as desirable as the transfer of the Civil jurisdiction:

2. Criminal cases from south and south-east Wynad are still committed to the Tellicherry Sessions Court.

3. No change has been made in the Police Superintendence, of course this point will be settled by the Inspector General, but I may remark that even the Criminal jurisdiction is transferred, I am very doubtful if a change in the Police charge is desirable, as South Malabar is now considerably larger than North Malabar, and the transfer would make the inequality still greater.

4. I would suggest a distinct Notification that the Criminal jurisdiction of the Amshoms specified in the former notice, excepting one, is transferred from Tellicherry to Calicut.

5. The Amshom I would except is that of Tondornad, whose position so clearly connects it with Tellicherry, that I can only suppose an oversight has led it to be included in the transferred portion. The Civil and Criminal jurisdiction in this Amshom should rest with the Tellicherry Court.

No. 192.

ORDER THEREON, 27th November 1862, No. 1,924.

Referred for the opinion of the Honorable the Judges of the High Court.
