*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

No. 24. Read the following letter from J. GARRETT, Esq., Canarese Translator to Government; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Bangalore, 17th November 1862, No. 129.

I have the honor to forward the accompanying bill from the Wesleyan Mission Press for printing the Canarese Translation of the Acts, from September 1st 1861, to August 31st 1862. It will be seen that the amount, Rupees (1,262-2-0) one thousand two hundred and sixty-two and Annas two, is within the sum entered in the Budget Estimate for 1862-63.

No. 25. ORDER THEREON, 4th December 1862, No. 1,962.

The Bill submitted will be made over to the Civil Paymaster for audit.

Proceedings 3rd September 1861, No. 1,102.

2. In regard to the remark that the amount is within the provision in the Budget of 1862-63 for printing Canarese Translations of the Acts, His Excellency the Governor in Council observes that strictly the cost of the work charged for in the bill, but executed prior to April last, is payable from the grant for 1861-62. The annual contract and the Bills submitted under it, should be made to correspond with the Budget year.

3. The terms of agreement with the Wesleyan Mission Press, as sanctioned in the Order of the 13th September last, No. 1,494, having been communicated to the Civil Paymaster, the Canarese Translator will forward his Bills in future direct to that Officer. Special sanction for them is superfluous.
