Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th December 1862.

No. 54. Read the following letter from W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of M. Police; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 28th November 1862, No. 2,865.

Account Department.

In reference to Order of Government, No. 1,916, dated 25th November 1862, I have the honor to state that under the head Collectors' Guards estimated for by me in Budget 1862-63 at Rupees 1,20,410,* provision is only made for Treasure duties: indeed the duty actually employs a larger sum as will be seen by reference to my Budget for 1863-64, in which those bona fide so employed are charged for at Rupees 1,34,882, Escorts included.

2. The cost of guards of Magisterial Courts has been borne by the Police Budget, it having been deemed a duty specially devolving on the Police.

3. The ten per cent. margin allowed by Government on the head Collectors' Guards to meet Contingencies, besides the 10 per cent. authorized by Government, has been applied under instructions from the Accountant General, dated 19th August 1862, No. 2,470, to meet the cost of guards maintained for the Salt Pans and Treasuries, for which no provision at all had been made in the Police Budget.

4. The cost of guards to Civil and Sessions Courts is met by the sum of Rupees 19,980 deducted under that head from the Police Budget and included in the items as per margin of Law and Justice, which covers both guards and messengers.
