Memorandum.

It is understood that, in the Government Office, a month's allowance for Contingencies, viz Rs 100, is drawn and reserved as a permanent advance, and that whatever amount is expended out of it, during the month, is replaced as soon as the Monthly Bill is passed by the Civil Paymaster. The same amount (100 Rs) having been sanctioned for this Department, for Contingencies, it is requested, that a similar permanent advance be also made, to meet prepayment of charges under that head.

x to be returned.

A Memo of the Articles required at present, is annexed for information.
