Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 16th December 1862.

No. 149. Read the following letter from THOMAS WILKINS, Esq., Acting Deputy Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government. Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 29th November 1862, No. 37.

1. I am directed by the High Court to state that the Acting Civil Judge of Chittoor has brought to their notice that as the business of his Court has greatly increased since the abolition of the Principal Sudder Ameen and Sudder Ameen's Courts, it will be absolutely necessary to increase his Establishment by adding—

1 Goomastah on.....	Rupees 25
1 do.	, 14
2 Peons @ Rupees 5½.....	, 11

2. The Acting Civil Judge states that while the former average number of original suits pending was only 4, there are at present 50 original suits on his file, and as he is now charged with the execution of decrees in all suits beyond the jurisdiction of District Moonsiffs, the miscellaneous and ministerial work of the Court must greatly increase.

3. He also reports that in consequence of the Civil Court House being insufficient to contain the Records of the abolished Courts, a part of them remain in the late Principal Sudder Ameen's Court House, which is at a distance of about a quarter of a mile or more from the Civil Court, and it is impossible for the Record-keeper to perform his duties unaided; and that as the Civil Court is much frequented by the public and often crowded, it will be necessary to employ additional Peons to preserve order and to go to and fro between the Court and the Record-room and to perform the actual manual labor to be done in the Record-room, the four Peons now allowed being insufficient for the purpose, there being also daily communications for some cause or other with the Collector's office, which is nearly two miles from the Court House.

4. Under these circumstances, and as no addition has been made to the Establishment of the Civil Court on the abolition of the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court, the Chief Justice and Judges recommend that sanction be granted for the additional Establishment applied for by the Acting Civil Judge.

No. 150. ORDER THEREON, 16th December 1862, No. 2,043.

2 Goomastahs on 25 and 14.. .. .	Rupees 39	His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctions the additional Establishment at a cost of fifty Rupees per mensem, proposed for the Civil Court of Chittoor, in consequence of the abolition of the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at that Station.
2 Peons on 5½	, 11
	Rupees 50

2. The expense for this official year will be defrayed from savings, and provision for it will be made in the ensuing year's Budget, subject to the approval of the Government of India.
