be experienced with regard to him at the expiration of his imprisonment, I do not see that much advantage would arise from this proceeding. To the course would, I venture to suggest, be to send him back to Hyderabad, with a warning that if he again sets foot in our territory he will be apprehended and dealt with under the above Section.

6. I have already communicated twice with the authorities at Hyderabad regarding the imprisonment there of Jankhan, and as to whether his assertions are correct; but having received no reply, and the prisoner being still detained in custody, I do not wish to delay this reference any longer.

Deposition of Jankhan.

I belong to Caubul. Eight years ago I came thence, and was for a few months in service at Peshawar and at Ratoor. afterwards I was for four years in Oude, and under a Rohilla named Kamar Ally, who joined Nana Saib, and I continued with Kamar Ally during the mutiny. I received from him Rupees 12 per month. I fought under him against the English at Calpee, Gwalior and at three or four other places. I received 3 wounds. After the war was over I came to Hyderabad, and when I was proceeding thence with a view of going to Bombay, I was apprehended near Janampett by the Wanampurty Rjah and sent back to Hyderabad, where I was imprisoned for 3 years and 3 months. I was released 20 days ago, and as I was looking about for some means of gaining a livelihood I was again apprehended by the Kurnool Police. Wherever I can get enough to eat, there I am willing to remain. I never killed an Englishman to my knowledge. I fired against them in the battles we fought, but whether my shots ever took effect or not I am unable to say. I never was in the service of the English Government.
