Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
22nd December 1862.

No. 220. Read the following letter from W. H. HAVELOCK, Esq., Agent to the Government of Bombay; to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, Bombay Castle, 6th December 1862, No. 3,710.

I am directed to acknowledge your letter, No. 1,871 of the 18th ultimo, and to return to you the accompanying Summons received therewith as this Government has no power to serve Summons in Civil suits.

2. The Sommons should, I am desired to add, have been sent for service to the Court having jurisdiction under Section 59 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

No. 221. ORDER THEREON, 23rd December 1862, No. 2,000.

The Summons returned with the above letter will be sent to the High Court for retransmission to the Civil Judge of Chingleput.

2. It would appear from Sections 59 and 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure that the service of Civil process in cases where the defendant resides beyond the jurisdiction of the Court in which the suit is instituted, can be effected without the intervention of the Government. The Honorable the Judges of the High Court are requested to consider whether it would not be expedient to issue a circular on the subject.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
