In regard to the establishment, I directed the Sudder Ameen that under an arrangement with the Inspector General of Police the Superintendent of Police would probably employ all who were fit for Police duties, that any who were unfit would, on obtaining the necessary Certificates from the Zillah Surgeon, be recommended for gratuities on discharge proportionate to their service.

3. In reply to the Sudder Ameen's further reference, I have directed that all Arms and Ammunition be returned to the Arsenal; that of other articles enumerated, some which I have specified be forwarded to the Sessions Judge at Chicacole, and that others enumerated be sold. Further that the buildings, garden and sundry articles named, be reserved pending the Orders of Government, and I would in the mean time suggest that the Collector be consulted as to their disposal.
