Paragraph 1. Your letter dated 12th November (No. 71) 1861, stating that in consequence of the objections urged by the Government of Madras to the establishment of a Central Jail at Ootacamund, for European and American Convicts, you have resolved that each Presidency shall provide for the reception of its own Convicts, has been laid before me in Council.

2. On a mature consideration of this subject, I approve of this resolution, and of the instructions issued by you to the subordinate Governments in connection with it.
