PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Judicial Department, dated 27th February 1862, No. 325.

Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Madras Police.

(Here enter 18th January 1862.)

1. The Inspector General of Police submits his estimate for the Constabulary of the Tinnevelly District.

2. The Force consists of 24 Inspectors and 1,200 Constables, whose allowances will amount to Rupees 1,46,690 per annum. The ratio of the entire strength—1,224 men—is one Policeman for every 1,115 of the population, and for every 4·2 square miles of area—and that of the cost 6·6 per cent. of the Revenue, and at the rate of 1 1/2th Anna per head of the population per annum.

Town Police...	.. 2	112
Táluq do.	.. 18	885
Reserve, &c.	.. 4	203
Men...	24	1,200

Area.	5,144 Square Miles.
Population.	1,364,399 Souls.
Revenue.	22,23,350 Rupees.

3. In each of the towns of Tinnevelly, Palamcottah, and Tuticorin, a European Constable on Rupees 30 a month will be maintained. The rates of pay of the Native grades will be higher in this district. Mr. Robinson explains that the demand for labor in Ceylon has raised the wages of the lowest class of unskilled labor above the rate of pay found sufficient for Constables in other districts.

4. The Force relieved by the Constabulary are the Magistrate's Peon Establishment, a body of Civil armed Police, the Jail Guards, and the Military Guards at the Jail and Treasury, numbering in all 979 men.

5. The Government sanction the Constabulary required for this district at a total annual cost of (Rupees 1,46,690) on lac forty-six thousand and six hundred and ninety Rupees.

6. The Government sanction likewise the Force, 45 Constables at an annual cost of (Rupees 4,500) four thousand and five hundred Rupees, required as watchmen at the Salt factories and Treasuries. The expense will be charged to the Revenue Department, plus the prescribed additional ten per cent. The extra Force which may be necessary for the Pearl Fishery at Tuticorin, should, the Inspector General thinks, be paid for from the proceeds of the Oyster banks. Orders on this point will be passed in the Revenue Department.

ORDER THEREON, 13th March 1862, No. 558.
