Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
20th March 1862.

No. 178. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the Sudder Court; to the Honorable T. PYCROFT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 10th March 1862, No 36.

With reference to paragraph 5 of the Order of Government, dated the 4th instant, respecting the adjournment of the Courts, I am directed by the Judges to transmit for publication in the Gazette a Miscellaneous Circular which they have prepared on the subject.

MISCELLANEOUS CIRCULAR.

1. By Orders of Government, dated 29th April 1856 and 6th May 1859, Judicial Officers were permitted to absent themselves from their Stations during the adjournment of their Courts on the Civil side, provided no delay occurred in commencing the trial of Criminal cases when committed by the Magistracy.

2. Arrangements being now authorized under the Code of Criminal Procedure for the substitution of periodical Sessions in lieu of daily sittings in the Courts of Session, the Government have approved of the adjournment being extended to the Criminal side of the Courts, and have granted Judicial Officers permission to leave their stations for the whole period of the adjournment. Such Officers as have charge of Jails, will make due provision for the care of the Jail during their absence, communicating the same to the Inspector General of Jails.

3. The Government have further authorized the Courts of the District Moonsiffs being adjourned for one month in each year, on the understanding that the number of cases which those Officers are expected to decide during the year shall not be diminished.

4. The several Courts will in future be adjourned simultaneously from the beginning of May in every year.

SUDDER COURT,
10*th March* 1862.
