I have the honor to request an additional advance of Rupees (1,500) one thousand five hundred to complete the Jail at this station.

2. I have not yet drawn out an account distinguishing building from fittings and furniture, indeed from the mode in which timber and other material and labor has been applied it will not be easy to do this except approximately.

3. I have acceded to Captain Farewell's request not to sell any of the stock and materials till he receives orders in regard to buildings contemplated at this station: should he require it, these will be handed over at a valuation.
