Session Judge of Chicacole

To.

E. G. R. Fane Esqre
Magistrate of Vizagapatam

Sir,

I have the honor to suggest for your consideration the propriety of Serjeant Major Herlihy being compensated for the expences incurred by him when attending at this Court in Case No. 13 of 1861, as a Witness on behalf of Government.

I have as you are aware no power in such cases, and I have desired him to inform you thro' his Commanding Officer the expences he has been put, and I have no doubt your representation to Government will secure him reimbursement, and the Government have in many cases recognised the Magistrat

ey

or Committing Officer as the proper chan =nel for such communications

I have the honor to be &c.
