Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 4th April 1862.

No. 43. Read the following letter from JAMES INNES MINCHIN, Esq., Acting Magistrate of Kurnool; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Yerrachelma Hill, 21st March 1862, No. 15.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that several complaints have been brought before the Deputy Collector Ragoonatha Row, by labourers employed on the Irrigation Company's works, that the Contractors have withheld from them payment of the sums due for their labour.

The Deputy Collector has hitherto been only able to refer such parties to the Civil Courts for redress, and the result has been that many labourers are leaving the works, and from what I hear the Company's Officers may ere long be much impeded in their operations unless a remedy be supplied. I beg therefore to request that the Deputy Magistrate Ragoonatha Row, may be invested with the powers necessary for the settlement of such disputes under Act IX of 1860, while his special duty brings him chiefly in contact with all parties engaged on the Irrigation works. I would beg to point out that his long practice in the Courts renders him peculiarly qualified for the Judicial duties which the exercise of the powers under Act IX of 1860, would involve.

No. 44.

ORDER THEREON, 4th April 1862, No. 549.

His Excellency the Governor in Council wishes to be informed who are the Magisterial Officers of the Kurnool District in whose several ranges the works now under execution by the Irrigation Company are being conducted, and why powers under Act IX of 1860, should not be conferred on them as being the established authorities of the District rather than on Ragoonatha Row. That individual is at present merely engaged temporarily on special duty, and when the object for which he was deputed to Kurnool, or that of making over land to the Irrigation Company, has been accomplished, he will have to rejoin his permanent appointment at Trichinopoly.

* 2. Under any circumstances if Ragoonatha is to be empowered to act under Act IX of 1860, the local limits of his jurisdiction must under Section III be fixed, and the Magistrate will state what those limits should be.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
