My dear Sir

I should have replied to your note before this but that I had not an opportunity of consulting the Treasr until this Eve. I am desired to state that their Lordships do not think you are exempt from being in the Grand Jury.

Your name appears on the Grand Jury Rolls, and There is no rule of court applicable to the Legislature, as there is to the members of the only Council existing at the time when the rules were framed.

I am, Sir,
 Your truly
 obedient servant
 Wm. P. P. P.
