Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 12th April 1862.

No. 97. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 28th March 1862, No. 177.

I have the honor to forward a Bill for Rupees 620-11-11 being the charges incurred for cooking pots of copper for the Jail at Chingleput.

2. When valuing this Prison in January last year, I desired that the prisoners should no longer be permitted to cook separately, but that the messing system should be introduced and that thus instead of each man having half a dozen chatties, metal cooking pots should be provided, one for each mess, of about 24 Convicts. Delay took place in providing the vessels at the time, partly from there being none in store, and the charge which should have been incurred in 1860-61, has come into 1861-62.

Amount entered in Budget Estimate for 1861-62, under Contingencies..... ...	Rs.	1,813	0 0
Amount expended up to February 1862.	,,	1,642	13 5
Remaining unexpended...	,,	170	2 7

3. The cost cannot be met wholly from the provision for Contingencies for the Chingleput Jail alone for the year, but may be defrayed from the amount sanctioned for other Jails.

No. 98. ORDER THEREON, 12th April 1862, No. 591.

The Government sanction the expense, (Rupees 620-11-11,) six hundred and twenty-one Rupees, of providing 12 copper boilers for use of the Convicts in the Chingleput Jail. The amount will be defrayed from the Budget savings under Law and Justice.

Chief Secretary.
