Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 13th January 1862.

No. 87. Read the following letter from Major W. J. WILSON, Commissioner of Police; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 23rd December 1861, No. 135.

Judicial Department, dated 18th December 1861, No. 1,562.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Government Order noted in the margin, and to return the enclosure No. 4,381 received therewith.

2. The only places besides the Gun Carriage Manufactory at which I can recommend the substitution of Military for Police are the Lunatic Asylum and the Light House, Beach.

3. The first named is a permanent Guard composed of two Naigues and ten Peons, and I have ascertained from Doctor Mayer, and from Mr. Cole the Principal Inspector General, that there will not be any objection on their part to the relief of this post by the Military.

4. It was first made over to the Police in April 1859, and chiefly furnished by the extra* Peons transferred to this Department at the time of the death of the late Nawaub, but who were all either discharged, or absorbed into the regular Force by the end of 1860.

* 110.

5. The Guard at the Light House, Beach, consists of one Duffadar, one Naigue, and eight Peons, who are only required occasionally from time to time in order to protect Military Stores deposited on the Beach for embarkation, a duty which appears to be essentially of a Military character.

6. The strength of the party now doing duty at Government House is amply sufficient for the relief of the Police at the Gun Carriage Manufactory and Lunatic Asylum; and if the Guard occasionally required at the Light House is also supplied by the Military when the Bank is removed into the Fort, I shall be enabled to re-occupy all the old Tannahs and to reduce the beats to their former extent.

No. 88. ORDER THEREON, 13th January 1862, No. 59.

It does not appear to His Excellency the Governor in Council that the Guard at the Lunatic Asylum is one that can properly be furnished by the Military. The Guard over Military Stores on the Light House Beach may, however, be so provided when the Bank has been moved into the Fort, or sooner if the duty can be taken up by the Troops at an earlier date.

2. Orders, it is observed, have been already* issued for the Guard at the Gun Carriage Manufactory being supplied from the Military.

* Proceedings, Military Department, 20th December 1861, No. 2,109.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
