Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
24th April 1862.

No. 172. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 17th April 1862.

I have the honor to request information as to the meaning of the Order of Government dated the 20th March 1862, No. 476, permitting Judicial Officers to quit their Stations during the adjournment of the Civil Courts. As I read it my impression was that it had reference only to Sessions Judges who could defer the hearing of cases to the Sessions, but the Subordinate Judge in charge of the Jail at Calicut having intimated his intention of quitting the Station, making over charge to the Sudr Ameen, I have replied that I do not understand the Order as applicable to Subordinate Judges who have not the power of deferring the hearing of cases and I now await the Orders of Government on the question.

No. 173. ORDER THEREON, 24th April 1862, No. 635.

The Order of the 20th ultimo, No. 476, was intended to apply to Subordinate as well as to Session Judges. Subordinate Judges will of course have to make provision for the charge of their Jails during their absence. When the Session Judge remains at the station he should take charge of the Jail, and in default of him, the Magistrate, Joint Magistrate and Head Assistant Magistrate. In the absence of all of these Officers the Zillah Surgeon may be put in charge of the Jail.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Exd. F. Cartledge.
