Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 15th January 1862.

No. 97. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 9th January 1862, No. 8.

The Civil Auditor having declined to pass the Contingent bill of my Office, in excess of the sum of 720 Rupees named in the original Estimate, though the Supplemental Budget Estimate was for the gross sum of Rupees 1,280, I have the honor to request that the Government will be pleased to direct the disbursement of this latter sum as required.

2. The 9th and 10th paragraphs of the Order of Government of the 25th October last appear to me fully to meet the Civil Auditor's objection.

3. I may note the cause of the original Estimate being only 720 Rupees for contingencies including house (office) rent, to have been, that my intention was to transfer my Office for the temporary use of the Jail Warders and to have incurred no charge on this account during the latter half of the year.

No. 98. ORDER THEREON, 5th January 1862, No. 66.

The Government observe that the Accountant General was instructed in paragraph 10 of the Proceedings of the 25th October last, No. 1,301, to exclude from his Supplemental Budget the Estimate sent in by the Inspector General of Jails, as there was ample credit for meeting the charges provided for in that Estimate. The Civil Paymaster was at the same time authorized generally to pass expenditure, appertaining to Courts or Jails and not included in the Budget against the savings under "Law and Justice." The Civil Paymaster will therefore pass the Contingent bill submitted by Mr. Rohde, as no Supplemental Estimate from that Officer is going up to the Government of India.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
