Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
2nd May 1862.

Read again Proceedings, 4th April 1862, No. 549.

No. 5. Read also the following letter from JAMES INNES MINCHIN, Esq., Magistrate of Kurnool; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Yerrachelma, 9th April 1862, No. 17.

1. With reference to the Order of Government, No. 549 of the 4th April, enquiring who are the Magisterial Officers of this District in whose several ranges the works now under execution by the Irrigation Company are being conducted, I have the honor to state that at present the works have been carried on solely in the Ramallakotta Talook which is under my own Magisterial charge.

2. The works are either now being, or will very shortly be commenced in the Talook of Nandikootkoor, which forms part of the charge of the Deputy Collector Ragoonatha Row.

3. I am unaware when work will be commenced in the Nandial Talook, which is under my own charge, or in that of Sirwell which is part of the charge of the Deputy Collector Soobroyaloo Naidoo, but at least in the latter Talook I do not suppose that ground will be broken for another twelve month.

4. I named the Deputy Magistrate Ragoonatha Row as the most suitable Officer on whom to confer powers under Act IX of 1860, on account of his special duty bringing him chiefly in contact with all parties engaged on the Irrigation works.

5. I shall be happy however to have the same powers conferred on myself, as well as on the Deputy Magistrate Ragoonatha Row, in the four Talooks of Ramallakotta, Nandikootkoor, Nandial and Sirwell, in all of which the Company's works will ultimately be carried on. The powers might also be advantageously conferred on the Deputy Magistrate Soobroyaloo Naidoo, within the Talook of Sirwell, though I did not previously recommend this step from the fact that such powers were not likely to be speedily brought into requisition within his charge.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 2nd May 1862, No. 706.

The Magistrate of the Kurnool district is invested with power, under Act IX 1860, to enquire into and decide disputes on account of wages, hire of carriage, or the price of work, between any workmen employed in the Irrigation Company's works, and the person or persons by whom such workmen are employed in the Ramallakotta Talook.

2. Ragoonatha Row, Deputy Magistrate, is also invested with similar powers to be exercised within the limits of the Nundikootkoor Talook.

3. As the works advance, if similar powers are required for other Talooks, application may be made for them.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Acting Chief Secretary.
