Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th May 1862.

No. 54. Proceedings of Government, dated 6th May 1862, No. 748.

It having been brought to the notice of Government that the authority given in the Circular issued by the Court of Sudder Udalt, under date the 4th March last, to the Judges of the Civil and Criminal Courts to leave their stations during the annual adjournment is considered not to be applicable to the servants of those Courts, the Governor in Council resolves to communicate to the Judges of the Sudder Court his opinion that the servants of the Courts in question, equally with the Judges presiding over them, should be at liberty to leave their stations during the adjournment, without obtaining any special leave for that purpose; and that the Courts in fact should be fully closed, due provision being made for the safe custody of the buildings and of the records.

2. It appears to the Governor in Council that the reasons for which it has been deemed proper to make the annual adjournment a period of complete relaxation in the case of the Judges apply nearly, if not quite as much, to the case of the Court servants, whose duties though of a different character are often quite as laborious as those of the Judges.

3. A copy of these Proceedings will be sent direct to each Judicial Officer in the Provinces.

Acting Chief Secretary.
