The retention of the Additional District Moonsiff's Courts at Combaconum and Paupanassum for four months to 30th ultimo, was sanctioned in the Financial Department of the Government of India under date 28th September 1861, No. 12,327.

2. The Civil Judge of Tanjore represents that the files of these Courts, as well as those of the two permanent Courts at Combaconum and Trivady, to relieve which they were established, have been very largely increased, as shown in the annexed statement:—

	Combaconum.		Trivady.
	Permanent Court.	Additional Court.	Trivady Court.	Paupanassum Court.	Totals.
Pending on 1st July 1861...	1,753	669	1,627	1,012	5,061

The number of Suits pending on the 31st March 1862, on the files of these Courts, exceeded the number on the 1st July 1861, although during the 9 months, 4,962 suits were disposed of by them.

3. The Sudder Court have supported the application of the Civil Judge for the continuance of the additional Courts for a further period of one year up to 30th April 1863. This Government has accordingly authorized the Civil Paymaster to admit the charge, which has been provided for in the Budget, 1862-63, for May 1862, and the succeeding months, pending the receipt of the sanction, which is herein applied for.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th May 1862.

No. 55. Read the following letter from G. T. BEAUCHAMP, Esq., Civil Judge of Tanjore; to C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the Sudder Court, Fort Saint George, dated Combaconum, 16th April 1862, No. 387.

Adverting to your communication of the 14 instant this day received and the Order of the Government dated 1st November 1861, No. 1,336, conveying the sanction of the Supreme Government for the retention of the two additional District Moonsiffs' Courts at Combaconum and Papanassem up to the end of this official year; I have the honor to request that the necessary sanction may be obtained for the continuance of the said Courts from the 1st May 1862 to the 30th April 1863, as there appears to me an absolute necessity for their retention for at least that period.

2. The enormous rise in the files of the said Courts as well as the 2 permanent Courts at Combaconum and Trivady to relieve which they were established is chiefly attributable to Act XIV of 1859 (Limitation of suits) having come into operation on the 1st January 18 .

3. As no tabular statement accompanied my former application, dated 13th October 1860, for the continuance of these Courts for 1861-62, none was submitted with my letter of the 14th November last which accompanied the Budget, and in which the necessity for continuing these Courts was fully explained.

4. As the last sanction for the entertainment of these Courts extends only to the 30th April 1862, I have the honor to request that I may be furnished with early instructions as to whether they can be continued beyond that date in anticipation of the sanction now applied for.

5. The required tabular statement is forwarded.

No. 57.

The Judges recommend that, in anticipation of the sanction of the Supreme Government, the Civil Judge may be authorized to continue the additional Courts in question for a further period of one year.
