Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 16th May 1862.

No. 106. Read the following letter from M. WYLIE, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, the 30th April 1862, No. 14.

I am directed by His Excellency the Governor General in Council to forward, for the information of the Honorable the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council, the annexed Extract from the Calcutta Gazette of this day containing an Erratum in the published copies of the Schedule annexed to the Code of Criminal Procedure.

2. The Code, as passed and assented to by His Excellency the Governor General, contains the words "according as the offence abetted is bailable or not" in the Schedule, opposite to Section 116 and 117 of the Indian Penal Code, but the substitution of the word "Ditto" in the published copies renders many offences not bailable which would be bailable under the words used in the Code as passed.

3. I am directed to request that His Honor in Council will be pleased to call the attention of the Sudder Court to the correction now made in the Gazette, and will desire that Court to instruct the Courts and Officers subordinate to it to correct their copies of the Code accordingly.

4. In like manner, with regard to the Provinces under the Government of Fort Saint George, which are not subject to the general Regulations, I am directed to request that the attention of the authorities in those Provinces may be called to the Erratum in question.

FORT WILLIAM, HOME DEPARTMENT, LEGISLATIVE, the 30th April 1862.

NOTIFICATION.

The following Erratum in the Schedule to the Code of Criminal Procedure as published in the Calcutta Government Gazette is notified for general information.

In column 5, opposite to both the Clauses of Section 116, and to Section 117 of the Indian Penal Code, for "Ditto" read "according as the offence abetted is bailable or not."
