Read again Proceedings 26th April 1862, No. 662.

No. 116. Read also the following letter from T. SYDNEY SMYTH, Esq., Advocate General; to the Honorable T. PYCROFT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 1st May 1862.

With reference to the Order of Government, Judicial Department, 26th April 1862, No. 662, I have the honor to request that you will ask the Session Judge of Tellicherry to furnish the Government Solicitor with a Copy or Extract—shewing the conviction of Francis Luis D'Almeida for forgery, verified by his seal and signature—Act XV of 1852, Sections 7 and 10.

2. I must also request you to ask the Collector, to send a Certificate similarly verified of the fact of the Convict's property having been attached to the Government Solicitor; and moreover that the Officer should be requested to cause the Tahsildar to retain the property until I send further orders.

3. I shall then apply to the Supreme Court, by information, ex-officio, for a commission directed to the Judge at Tellicherry requiring him to summon a Jury and take an inquisition to ascertain in due form what property the Convict had at the time of committing the felony, and the value, and to seize them into the Queen's hands.

4. The inquisition when taken must be returned into the Supreme Court and filed there.

5. This is the only regular mode of proceeding, unless the Court has already proceeded under Section 62 of the Penal Code, which however I presume it has not done, from no mention being made thereof.

No. 117. ORDER THEREON, 16th May 1862, No. 795.

Communicated to the Collector of Malabar, and to the Sessions Judge of Tellicherry. These Officers are requested to furnish the Government Solicitor with the Certificates required by the Advocate General.

2. It does not appear that the case was tried under the Penal Code. The Prisoner, D'Almeida, was sentenced to 7 years' imprisonment under Clause 1, Section III, Regulation VI, 1811.

Acting Chief Secretary
