Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 24th June 1862.

No. 180. Read the following letter from CHARLES COLLETT, Esq., Acting Civil Judge of Chittoor; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 17th June 1862.

1. Adverting to the Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 10th June 1862, No. 898, whereby in paragraph 4, I am directed to communicate direct with Government on the subject of the accommodation available for the Court of Small Causes at the three stations of Chittoor, Arcot and Calastry, I have the honor to state that there is ample accommodation for the Court at Chittoor, as the building now used for the Principal Sadr Ameen's Court will be available. The furniture also will be sufficient for the use of the Court of Small Causes, and when the Court sits at Arcot or Calastry the furniture needed may be carried there from Chittoor. I have not, therefore, submitted any estimate for furniture.

2. At Arcot there are, I believe, buildings available which might be adapted for the use of the Court at a small outlay. At Calastry I believe there is no building fit for the purpose; but on the subject of the buildings at both places I have written to the Acting Collector from whom I shall procure precise information to be submitted hereafter. As the Court may sit at first at Chittoor there need be no difficulty in opening it as fixed on the 15th July and steps may be taken to provide the accommodation needed at Arcot and Calastry.

3. The estimate of Stationery submitted is framed upon that of the Principal Sadr Ameen's Court.

No. 181. ORDER THEREON, 24th June 1862, No. 980.

The Civil Judge will transfer the Court furniture, residue of Stationery, &c., belonging to the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Chittoor, for use of the new Small Cause Court in that Zillah.

2. He will state with reference to the estimate for Stationery submitted with the foregoing letter, whether the supply belonging to the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court will not suffice for the wants of the Small Cause Court. If not, he will submit an indent in the prescribed form.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Acting Chief Secretary.
