Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 29th June 1863.

No. 271. Read the following Petition:—

To the Right Honorable Sir WILLIAM DENISON, B.C.B., the Governor of the Madras Presidency, Fort Saint George.

The humble petition of C. VENCATARAMANIAH, late Head Goomastah of the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Coimbatore.

MOST HUMBLY SHEWETH,

With reference to the appeal petition submitted by the petitioner for transmission to the Secretary of State for India with a view of obtaining justice, your Excellency has been kindly pleased to order on the 25th March 1863, that it will be sent to the Secretary of State for India; and the petitioner therefore believes that his appeal petition might by this time occupy the attention of the Secretary.

The petitioner now begs to say that having something new to be appended to his original petition, he herewith humbly encloses a supplemental appeal petition in triplicate to your Excellency for transmission to the Secretary of State.

As the petitioner is poor he is unable to buy the services of a Pleader, and a Pleader in England. Setting aside all considerations of the employment of a Vakeel there comes another obstacle of a more insurmountable nature as to his pleading personally; that is great distance.

Therefore the petitioner humbly begs to state that having no other alternative but the medium of your Excellency, he begs to be pardoned for troubling your Excellency with this request.

COIMBATORE,
10th June 1863.

(Signed) VENCATARAMANIAH.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

The humble Supplemental appeal petition of C. VENCATARAMANIAH, late Head Goomastah of the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court in the District of Coimbatore attached to the Madras Presidency.

MOST HUMBLY SHEWETH,

In continuation of the petitioner's appeal, dated 9th December 1862, he begs most respectfully to submit the following additional circumstances to show that the proceedings of the Civil Judge of Coimbatore, in the petitioner's case have been unjust, and that the petitioner was thereby deprived of the benefits which he would otherwise have enjoyed.

Your Honor may have learned from the appeal petition quoted above that the Civil Judge had, after once passing an order to the effect that the petitioner should "act carefully in future," unjustly transferred him to a post in the Moofy Sudder Ameen's Court, which was then very likely to be abolished sooner. Consequent on this transfer, the place which the petitioner vacated in the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court was filled up by the promotion to it of the Criminal Record-keeper, and the latter's place by the appointment to it of a new man by name Tiroovangadum Pillay. Subsequently the office of Nazir in the Court referred to became vacant; and the Civil Record-keeper was appointed to it, and his place was conferred on the said Criminal Record-keeper Tiroovangadum Pillay who was two grades below that to which he was promoted. Your Honor will thus see that if it were not for the unjust transfer of the petitioner to the Moofy Sudder Ameen's Court, he would certainly have been promoted to the post of Nazir or at least to that of the Civil Record-keeper. These benefits, the petitioner was deprived of by the arbitrary proceedings of the Civil Judge. The petitioner therefore most humbly and earnestly requests, that the circumstances above enumerated may also be taken into consideration in connexion with his original appeal petition, and justice rendered to him.

For this act of pure justice the petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

COIMBATORE,
10th June 1863.
