Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
24th January 1863.

No. 129. Read the following letter from G. S. FORBES, Esq., Magistrate of Ganjam; to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Madras, dated Ganjam, 23rd December 1862, No. 74.

With reference to the accompanying letter and its enclosure, I have the honor to request the authority of Government for forwarding the Lunatic therein alluded to, to the Asylum at Madras, there being no suitable place for confining Lunatics in this District, and the relatives of this person being unable to undertake his custody.

From Captain T. M. LANE, Acting Senior Assistant Magistrate of Ganjam; to G. S. FORBES, Esq., Magistrate of Ganjam, Russelcondah, dated Chetterpore, 18th December 1862, No. 102.

With reference to the enclosed Medical Certificate, I request you will be so good as to inform me where you would wish the Lunatic therein mentioned to be kept in confinement.

2. He has a wife and young child at Russelcondah, but they are not, I am informed, able or willing to take charge of him, these are the only relations he has I believe in this part of the country, he has others with the 23rd Regiment N. I.
