Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 8th July 1863.

No. 59. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable Sir C. WOOD, Bart., Secretary of State for India; to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George, dated India Office, London, 30th May 1863, No. 11.

1. Your Despatch, dated 12th March last, (No. 9) intimating that you have permitted Mr. T. L. Strange to resign his appointment as a Judge of the High Court, has been laid before me in Council.

2. I have now to inform you that the Queen has been pleased to appoint Mr. William Holloway, now an Acting Puisne Judge of the Court, to be a Judge of the said High Court, vice Mr. T. L. Strange.

3. The Letters Patent appointing Mr. William Holloway are herewith transmitted, and I have to request that you will give instructions for recovery from Mr. Holloway the equivalent of two hundred and thirty-one Pounds one Shilling (£ 231-1-0) being the amount of fees paid to the Crown and other Officers on his appointment.

No. 60. ORDER THEREON, 8th July 1863, No. 1,088.

A copy of this Despatch will be forwarded to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court, with the Letters Patent referred to in it.

2. An extract from the London Gazette, notifying Mr. Holloway's appointment by Her Majesty the Queen, has already been published in the Fort Saint George Gazette.

3. The Accountant General will recover from Mr. Holloway the equivalent of the amount mentioned in the last paragraph of the Despatch.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
