Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 8th July 1863.

No. 72. Read the following letter from H. D. COOK, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Calicut; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated Calicut, 26th June 1863, No. 221.

With reference to the Order of Government, dated 6th November 1862, No. 1,822, on my letter dated 17th October last, forwarding an application from the Civil Surgeon of Calicut for the entertainment of a Peon on his establishment, I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from the Civil Surgeon of Cochin, who makes a similar request and to suggest that under the circumstances specified by him, a Peon should be sanctioned for the establishment of the Civil Surgeon of Cochin; this has been done for the Civil Surgeon of Calicut.

From FRANCIS DAY, Esq., Civil Surgeon; to the Civil Judge, Calicut, dated Cochin, 24th June 1863, No. 59.

For some months a Peon orderly formerly allowed to the Civil Surgeon has been discontinued, I have numerous duties in different parts of Cochin, and up to this time have sent private servants to take notes to Hospital or the Jail, &c., but which course I am unable to continue. For at the present time the Hospital Cooly is sick, and owing to the rigid economy now in force there only remain the Toty and the Nurse to attend to the patients' wants and carry letters.

Thus yesterday a woman was brought in with tetanus, and in the evening another was run over and had her arm broken, whilst a male patient then moribund required the Toty to be constantly with him, and the Nurse had to look after a woman whose leg I had removed and a second with fits.

The Nurse having to carry notes takes her away from the patients; in fact an orderly is very necessary. We are under handed with regard to the due efficiency of the Hospital.

I should feel much obliged if I could have the services of a Peon for the purpose of taking letters and directions on purely official business.
