5. Liabilities of the remount Fund - These are the sums, due to subscribers who on the loss of their horses were of the houses, and they must have had houses somewhere. It does not appear to me that the Govt. can be required

of the Government taking them over is that they are said to have been built on the orders of the Commanding Officer and Commissioner of Kurnool
on the institution of the force. Still, as remarked by Mr. Robinson, an Irregular horseman

has to find everything for his horse stabling included, and the men of the Risallah have no doubt reaped the advantage of the lines in the ~~with~~ good effect upon their horses. They have also had the enjoyment

6. The Lines include stabling for the horses and houses for the men. The only argument in favour of it, continued to the end of June, as it is like to be, the amount will be less than Rs. 1400.-

The

entitled to the fixed rate of Rs 115 per horse towards the purchase of others, but could not draw it because the fund, from the heavy demands, unexpectedly made upon it, had become temporarily involunt.

Mr Robinson altho he has not admitted this item says "it would be an act of grace in the Govt. to accept this liability." I would accept it. The loss would otherwise fall very heavily on the few men whom it would affect. From the Magis. trates Memo of 30 April 1863. Para 27 it seems that if the Risalla be con-would be of sufficient strength for all the duty legitimately pertaining to it. To guard the country against the raids or incursions of Mohillahs from the Hyderabad Territory is no part of such duty - and <sup>purpose for</sup> if that purpose should prove to be necessary it must be made by the requisite arrangements of the troops of the Regular Army, whether by locating parties of Cavalry and Infantry at Kurnool and Cumbum or by such other means as may seem advisable.

or houses. The men can of course sell the materials
- but if it would add to the value of the property I would give the ground (probably worth little intrinsically) forming the sites of the stables or houses rent free, and on free-hold tenure and leave it to the men to dispose of them as they saw fit. I observe
that the value of house
in Kurnool.

7. The total amount of compensation proposed by the Magistrate under
shown, Rs 124,540. The

8. The Magistrate proposes that the Bagheers
duties in the case of extra Assameses held by the Officers and for non-riding Silladars, shall receive donations
of one month's pay, Rs. 8. 5. 4. for each year of service up to 12 years.
There are 110 Bagheers -
The Inspector General
would give gratuities to  $\frac{3}{4}$  of them who have not served such a period
would entitle them to pension. The remaining 36 he would admit to
