Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
13th July 1863.

No. 134. Read the following letter from C. G. PLUMER, Esq., Acting Joint Magistrate, Tanjore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Combaconum, 22nd June 1863, No. 44.

I have the honor to report for the information of Government under the provision of Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, that a man named Sabapathi, who was charged before me with committing theft from the dwelling house of one Vaithilingam, has been found on Medical examination to be of unsound mind and incapable of making a defence to the charge brought against him. The offence is strictly speaking "not bailable;" but as Sabapathi is an old and harmless man I have thought it advisable in the absence of any proper place in which to keep him to make him over to the charge of his brother-in-law (who is willing to give security for his safe custody and appearance when required) until I shall receive further orders regarding him from Government.

No. 135. ORDER THEREON, 13th July 1863, No. 1,131.

Under Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Governor in Council directs that the Lunatic, Sabapathi, be detained in the Zillah Jail pending his trial.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
