Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th July 1863.

No. 266. Read the following letter from E. W. BIRD, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Tanjore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Political Department, Fort Saint George, dated Tanjore, 15th July 1863, No. 595.

Adverting to the Proceedings of Government, Political Department, No. 179, dated 27th June 1863, having reference to the rental of the Residency buildings at this station for the use of the Courts, and of that part thereof occupied by me as my private residence, I have the honor to request you will be good enough to obtain for me the sanction of Government for the occupation of the room on the lower story of the main building called the "drawing room" in addition to the rooms on the upper story assigned as the Judge's private accommodation in the Orders of Government, No. 1,571 of the 23rd September 1862.

2. The rooms on the upper story are only approachable from below, conveniently, through the drawing room, and without the drawing room the upper apartments are scarcely habitable. The drawing room is not required for the use of the Civil Court, and since November last when the building was first occupied as a public office it has neither been wanted, nor used, (except very unnecessarily, during a few days of Mr. Swinton's incumbency) as a portion of the Court House. Under these circumstances, and as the matter very seriously affects the convenience of myself and family, I trust the Government will be pleased to allow me to include the room in question in that part of these buildings for which the rent of 50 Rupees has been fixed, as payable by me, on account of my private residence.

No. 267. ORDER THEREON, 28th July 1863, No. 1,211.

On the assurance that the room in question is not needed for the Court, the Governor in Council consents to its being included among the apartments, &c., rented to the Civil Judge at his private residence.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
